COMMISSIONERS' AUCTION SALE
OF COWS, MULES, DAIRY APPURTENANCES, ETC.

Having decided to get out of the dairy business, I will offer for sale by public auction, at my place, on the Richmond and Petersburg Electric Line, Stop No. 25, in Chesterfield county, on MONDAY, MARCH 14, 1910, commencing at 10:30 A. M., the following described property: one span of good mules, seven and ten years old; thirty good Holstein and Jersey grade young cows, all giving milk, average yield for 1909, 6,500 pounds each; will be fresh in September and October, 1910; one Holstein bull, whose dam gave 1,400 pounds milk per year; one two-year-old heifer, with calf, and eight yearlings; six ten-gallon milk cans; one new Star separator, one De Laval separator, one gasoline pumping engine, one 1 1/2 C. manure spreader; one lumber wagon; one Imperial disc harrow; one ensilage cutter; one lot of tools, and many other things.

Take the Richmond and Petersburg electric car, which leaves Seventh and Perry Streets, Manchester, every hour on the hour, and get off at Stop 25, and it will land you at my place, within 100 yards of barn. I have a large covered yard, where the sale will be held; therefore the weather need not interfere. I have also made arrangements with the Bureau of Animal Industry to move cattle across the river. Terms cash.

Harrowgate is a Winner!

As Spring comes on you will hear the call of the country, and if you have decided to buy a home outside of town you want to invest where the returns will be surest—where you will have best neighbors—where you will have plenty of land for a yard and garden, and where you can raise your own supplies to combat the high cost of living. Harrowgate offers you all these and many other advantages you cannot find elsewhere.

Said Mrs. Tidy Wife to John, "I'm feeling fine of late; My spirits, they are brighter. Since we came to Harrowgate."

Said John to Mrs. Tidy Wife, "You are really looking great; The roses in your cheeks speak well. For healthy Harrowgate."

-The hope of Mrs. Tidy Wife

It is situated in the heart of the mineral spring section of Chesterfield, and the Richmond and Petersburg Electric Railway runs for a mile and a quarter through the centre of this property. A villa site of from 5 to 15 acres at Harrowgate will prove an ideal investment. These sixty lots we originally agreed to sell are being rapidly taken, and as soon as the remaining number are sold the price will be raised to $1,000 each. Take the car at 7th and Broad and ride out to Harrowgate, or call on the Harrowgate Country Home Corporation for full particulars of this attractive proposition.
